Quick overview

- Amount: $5 000 - $50 000
- Term: 1 - 7 years

The screenshot shows the ANZ website's 'Fixed Rate Personal Loan' page. The header includes the ANZ logo, navigation links for Personal, Business, and Institutional, a search bar, and a 'Log in' button. Below the header, there's a breadcrumb trail: 'Personal / Personal loans / Fixed rate loan'. The main heading is 'ANZ Fixed Rate Personal Loan'. A sub-headline reads: 'Get what you need – with the certainty of fixed repayments. You'll know exactly how much your repayments are and for how long, which can help you plan and budget.' Below this, there are two bullet points: 'Apply to borrow between $5,000 and $50,000' and 'Get a loan term of 1 to 7 years'. A 'Jump to' section lists links: 'Fixed interest rate', 'How to apply', 'Fees and charges', 'Get started online', 'Loan and repayment calculators', and 'Frequently asked questions'. On the right side of the page, there's a large image of a man in a dark jacket standing next to a car with its trunk open, looking at something inside. The background shows a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. At the bottom, there's a section titled 'Our interest rates' with the text 'Rates so good you could avoid the bank of Mum or Dad.'
